Railroad Companies.

Ibid. sec. 158 1876, ch. 242.

242. Any number of natural persons, not less than five, three of whom shall be citizens of Maryland, may become a body corporate, with all the rights, privileges and powers conferred by and subject to all the restrictions of sections 242 to 300 of this article.

Ibid. sec. 159. 1876, ch. 242, sec. 3.

243. Any number of persons as aforesaid, associating to form a company for the purpose of constructing or operating a railroad, shall, under their hands and seals, make a certificate, which shall specify as follows: first, the name assumed by such company and by which it shall be known; second, the name of the places of the termini of said road, and the county or counties, city or cities, through which such road shall pass; third, the amount of capital stock necessary to construct such road; such certificate shall be acknowledged before a justice of the peace, and certified by the clerk of the circuit court for any county through which the road passes; and when said certificate is executed, it shall be the duty of the persons executing the same to submit it to one of the judges of the judicial circuit within which the county where it was acknowledged may lie, or to one of the judges of the supreme bench of Baltimore city, if acknowledged in said city, in order that the said judge may determine whether said certificate is in conformity with the law; and if the said judge shall so determine, he shall certify his said determination upon the said certificate, which shall be forwarded to the secretary of State, who shall record and carefully preserve the same in his office; and a copy thereof, duly certified by the secretary of State, under the great seal of the State of Maryland, shall be evidence of the existence of such company.
